The St John Valley made its mark on the National Scene in 1973 by having three Historical Sites placed in The National Historic Register, The St David Catholic Church. The Mount Carmel Church in Lille, and the Acadian Landing Site, in St David. The Fort Kent Block House was already listed in the Rigister. The natives of the Valley are proud of this long over due recognition.

Treasurer: Msgr.Albert Long

MEET INGS

Six directors' meetings were held in 1973 to discuss and vote upon business and Society policies.

The winter meeting was held in January during which President Dubay outlined policies and plans for the year. Out going President A.J.Michaud was presented with a placque for meritorious service rendered. Mr & Mrs Simon Savoy of Edmunston, N.B. gave a slide and film presentation of the "1972 Arts and Crafts Show" and of the "1969 Madawaska Centennial Pageant".

The spring meeting was held in April to discuss and accept the Old Fred Albert Home in St David, donated by Mr Elmo Albert.

Society officials participated in the "Across the Boarder Cam - Am " program held at the University of Maine in Fort Kent, "Ask Your Neighbor " program on the W F S T Caribon Radio, in the filming of the Log Cabin Museum for Educational T V in conjunction with the Bi - Lingual Titel VII Program of the St John Valley. An Older Citizen Day and American Legion Day were hosted by Society members at the Museum.

In July, the membership voted to accept a new Symbol for the Society, designed by Grande Island, New York artist, Mr Albion Ende. President Guy Dubay spoke on the "The Role Geneology Played in History".Mr Patrick P Cyr, of Lille donated the Senator Patrick Therriault Library and papers which will be housed at the Madawaska Public Library until suitable space can be prepared in the Museum.

Mr David Cyr of Glendale, California gave a film presentation of the 1969 Madawaska Centennial Pageant " Deja 100 Ans" at the Madawaska High School with approximately 200 people in attendence.

The complete set of seven volumes of the Dictionnaire Geneolgique du Madawaska by Msgr. Ernest Long of St Basil, N. B. and the David Cyr Film and slides of the 1969

Centennial were purchased by the Society in 1973.

In November a Land Acquisition Committee was formed to explore sites for a future Acadian Village. Two sites considered were: The Chasse Lot situated behind the present museum in St David and the Albert Lot, approximately 15 acres south of the U S Highway One about one fourth mile from the museum.

The members agreed to Co - Sponsor with Title V11 the Humanities program " The Maine and Valley Traditions" project.

PUBLICATIONS

Ten publications on local history written by local authors were made available to the public for cost price: The Madawaska Centennial Book 1869 - 1969 The Fort Kent Centennial Book 1869 - 1969 The St David Centennial Book and Pictorial Supplement 1871 - 1971 How the Acadians Came to Maine L. Violette Cyr Plantation Centennial Book 1870 - 1970 Linguistic and Cultural Heritage of the Acadians of Maine and New Brunswick M. Gauving An Acadian Heritage of the St John Valley, A.J. Michaud. In Fair Aroostook, a reprint of the 1902 Bangor and Aroostook Rail Road publication by C Poulin.

FUNDS Funds were received again from the Town of Madawaska and Aroostook County. A donation made by the friends of Mrs Louise Braulieu Van Stack, of Sandusky, Ohlo, in Memory of her mother, Mrs Severine Beaulieu, the remaining of the 4th generation decendent of our Founding Fathers in the Madawaska Territory. A donation by Miss Bernette Albert for the repair of the Fred Albert Home was also received. The usual sale of publications and membership dues were used to reduce our debt and make necessary improvements.

NEW MEMBERS

Life Membership: Mr Renauld Albert Participating and Contributing Memberships: Mr & Mrs Frank Hopkins, Machias Maine Susan Hopkins, California, Rev. Gerard Parent, Mr & Mrs Peter Sanfacon, Grand Isle. Mrs Elizabeth McDowell, Rye, N.Y. Miss June Pike and Patricia Martin, Mrs Paul Kelly Mr and Mrs Robert Evans of Fort Kent. MUSEUM NOTES The Museum was opened daily from 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. from June to September with the help of College Work Study and Neighborhood Youth Corps students. It was open upon request until November. Statistics maintained throughout the year revealed a steady increase of visitors. Total 1476.

Improvements made at the museum include: staining the exterior of the cabin, installation of stone steps at the front entrance, and some landscaping.

NOTES OF INTREST

The weekly column in the St John Valley Times has completed its 5th consecutive year. President Dubay recently compiled a complete index of all articles published that is available for a small fee.

ACQUSITIONS Donations of artifacts were again unbeleivable in 1973. Once more we acknowledge the generosity of the many donors.
